A record-setting 4.3 million pounds of food were distributed this year by Yolo Food Bank, the equivalent of more than 3.5 million meals. The distributions included 1.2 million pounds of produce, a 25% increase over the previous year. Yolo Food Bank continues to be the largest and most reliable hunger-relief organization in Yolo County, and the primary source of food and other critically-needed items for our 62 partner agencies.

Partner Agencies

Our partner agencies represent all of Yolo County, from the heart of Davis to the rural Capay Valley. Thanks to our partners, we are able to serve the thousands of Yolo County residents facing hunger each month.

In 2016, our partner agencies distributed 992,333 pounds of food to 139,671 Yolo County residents.

Partner Agencies welcomed in 2016:

West Sacramento Community Church in West Sacramento.

Pretty and Polished in West Sacramento.

Madison Community Committee in Madison.

Familia Church in Winters.
